Following on to our inaugural fair, the Committee of The Marsden Memorial Rural History Research Centre invites interested exhibitors and competitors to participate in the 2010 Orange Country Fair and Wool Expo to be held at the on Sunday, November 7, 2010 from 9.00 am to 4.30 pm at the Orange Showground.

This event is intended to be a family-friendly day out covering many facets of rural life both past and present. Education is a big part of the Marsden Centre Charter and for this reason we can see a Country Fair & Wool Expo as an ideal opportunity to bring rural life and history to people of all ages.

AIMS OF
THE MARSDEN MEMORIAL RURAL HISTORY
RESEARCH CENTRE INC.

- ❖ To unravel our early rural history and publish comprehensive accounts of our beginnings.
- ❖ To preserve what is left of our traditional way of life and farming practices.
- ❖ To help preserve some of our old woolsheds and other rural built environment.
- ❖ To present talks and events to increase awareness of our rich rural history.
- ❖ To help preserve our rural records in situ in rural areas or collect those records that are at risk for preservation.
- ❖ To make these records available for research.
- ❖ To document personalities in our pastoral industry from all walks of life.
